

Integrated End-to-End Solutions

Security Professionals Services

Allied Universal's security professionals are meticulously selected and trained to help provide top-tier protection. Through rigorous screening processes, including thorough background checks and evaluations, we aim to find officers who are highly qualified. Our continuous training programs cover essential areas such as emergency response, customer service, and advanced security techniques, equipping our personnel to handle a variety of security scenarios with professionalism and expertise.

Integrated Technology Services

Our Integrated Technology delivers end-to-end security solutions with top local coverage and expertise in complex, regulated environments. From design to installation, our specialists create tailored security programs that integrate cutting-edge technology with expert consultation. We help safeguard people, assets, and reputations by managing the full security lifecycle — assessing risks, deploying solutions, and supporting seamless monitoring and response.

Enhanced Protection Services

Our enhanced protection services offer an elevated level of security for clients requiring additional measures. We work closely with clients to design custom security programs to meet their unique requirements. This includes executive protection services, canine security, specialized transport for high-value assets, and dedicated response teams. Utilizing advanced training and state-of-the-art technology, our services are designed to provide robust defense mechanisms against potential threats, helping ensure peace of mind for both individuals and organizations.

Event Services

Allied Universal excels in providing comprehensive event services designed to help ensure the safety and success of your events. Our services include crowd management, access control, and risk assessment. We provide tailored security plans, coordinate with local law enforcement, and offer specialized services such as canine detection units and emergency medical teams. Whether it's a small corporate gathering or a large public event, we have the expertise and resources to manage all aspects of event security, helping to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience for all attendees.

Janitorial Services

With decades of experience in facility management and security, Allied Universal delivers professional, commercial janitorial and facility maintenance services that strive to exceed expectations. We combine industry-leading technology and personalized service to ensure your property looks its best. Allied Universal prioritizes high quality cleaning, minimized disruptions, enhanced productivity, and sustainable eco-friendly products to support your ideal working environment.

Professional Services

Allied Universal offers several professional services. Insurance claim investigation and compliance services accelerate claim processing and support the investigation of suspicious claims. Workforce solutions help research, screen, vet, and hire the right personnel. Cash management solutions helps large and small retailers transform their end-to-end cash operations. And electronic monitoring offers law enforcement and government agencies cutting-edge monitoring solutions.

Integrated End-to-End Solutions

Allied Universal provides an integrated approach with the right mix of people, technology, and expertise. Security isn't just about people; it's about providing comprehensive programs that adapt to change. We use a business-first security program design with advanced technology and unmatched expertise.
